

INDEPENDENT ROCK CLIMBING CONTRACTOR

ABOUT THE BUSINESS & THE ROLE

Would you love to work outdoors, with children, Rock Climbing?

Base Zero is a Mobile Adventure Company, we help kids be brave and take on a challenge, so they can be proud of themselves.

Successful applicants will have a hands on energetic personality, be fit and healthy, with patience and a passion to help kids be brave.

You will be trained to operate the equipment by our friendly team at support office. You will help deliver multiple signature events, everything from school holiday vacation care activities to large corporate gigs.

Your primary role is to attend all the events that Support office arrange for you, and help provide a wonderful customer experience.

JOB TASKS & RESPONSIBILITIES

As an Independent contractor you are the face of Base Zero in that region.

The outline of your role as an Independent-Contractor is detailed below:

- Safely store, operate and maintain a mobile rock climbing wall.
- You require the capacity to manage yourself, along with great communication skills.
- Look after the corporate image of Base Zero. Ensure your vehicle, signage, paperwork, emails, meet standards.
- Employ a casual team member for events when required.
- Provide event feedback, and periodic paperwork.
- Basic computer skills.
- Carry out preventative maintenance.
- Inform Support Office of any problems as they occur.
- Communicate with your field consultant regularly.

SKILLS & EXPERIENCE

Showing initiative, a positive attitude and a willingness to learn, are key attributes.

Most of the skills required, to perform this role, can be taught.

Having a background in outdoor education, vacation care, sports & fitness, defence force or support services will be highly regarded.

Criteria include:

Basic mechanical knowledge.

Towing experience.

Open Drivers Licence, with a good driving history record.

Blue Card - 'Working With Children' Application approved.

Apply for your own ABN.

JOB BENEFITS & PERKS

There are many perks with this role:

- Working just 2 - 3 days /week on average, and Turning Over a minimum of $50k, allows you to enjoy a wonderful work vs lifestyle balance.
- Utilise your time more effectively, and receive greater revenue for your time, rather than working the 9 - 5, for an hourly rate.
- Storing the Climbing Wall at your premises allows you to work from home.
- You don't have to find the events, the Support Office team in Brisbane, contact clients and book events for you.
- You work independently day to day, but be supported by the broader Base Zero team.
- 10 years sale's history in the area, with constant annual growth.
- Every event is at a fresh new location, no day is ever the same.
- Children are always so excited to see you, at events.
- If you aspire to own your own business, we also have 'Manage to Own' opportunities.

If you have not done so already, send your resume to:

Email: wade@basezero.com.au

Mobile: 0403195162

Click <http://www.basezero.com.au> for more info.

