

INDIVIDUAL ROCK CLIMBING CONTRACTOR

Join the Adventure with Base Zero – Where Fun Meets Courage!

Are you ready to bring excitement and adventure to people of all ages? At Base Zero, we specialise in delivering exhilarating mobile rock-climbing and Bungee experiences at major events, festivals, expos, stadiums, schools, and community gatherings. We're looking for energetic, hands-on individual contractors who are fit, patient, and passionate about helping kids conquer their fears and embrace adventure!

As part of our dynamic team, you'll receive full orientation from our friendly support office and play a key role in delivering around 140 thrilling events each year—from school holiday programs to high-profile sporting venues. If you love working outdoors, having the independence of working for yourself, engaging with people, and creating unforgettable experiences, this is the perfect role for you!
