Watching whales and dolphins by day and lights on the coastline by night becomes the norm in this showstopping coastal charmer. "My favourite place is the huge and open top level, where the ocean feels as though it's in your very own living room," says the seller, Katrina Rowlands. "This space allows you to enjoy every minute of the day."

This renewed cottage has been essentially designed as two different dwellings, lending itself to a number of uses. “The contrast between old and new works really well,” says agent Lucas Sheppard. “The open loft area in the extension is a great space to relax ... in winter with the fire roaring.”

SPOTLIGHT ON Mudgee

DESTINATION NSW

Mudgee locals love the place they call home and are always happy to share the fruits it bears, and not just the grape variety that supplies the town’s countless wineries. But then, there are also the trendy cafes and boutique stores sprinkled along its wide, historic streets, the farmers’ markets selling outstanding local products and produce, and the magnificent surrounding national parks and nature reserves.
