

NABS Interpreters - FACT SHEET

NABS is the National Auslan Interpreter Booking and Payment Service. NABS is funded by the Department of Social Services to book sign language interpreters for private health care appointments. NABS is an Australia wide service.

NABS employs NAATI accredited interpreters at Paraprofessional (formerly level 2) and Professional Interpreter (formerly level 3) levels. NABS also employs Deaf Interpreters.

It is expected that interpreters will have some experience/skills in interpreting in health and medical situations.

Working with NABS

NABS is an activity of Wesley Mission Brisbane (WMB). As an employee of WMB, you may be entitled to:

- ✓ Salary packaging
- ✓ Long service leave
- ✓ Professional indemnity insurance
- ✓ Employer superannuation contributions

Training and Professional Development

Ongoing professional development and training opportunities are available to NABS interpreters.

Interpreter Code of Ethics and Guidelines

NABS interpreters are required to adhere to the relevant Codes of Ethics for interpreters as outlined by AUSIT and ASLIA National.

All NABS Interpreters must agree to and follow the guidelines set out in the conditions of employment and adhere to NABS Conditions of Engagement for interpreters.
