

Entry Form

Literary Competition

Compose a poem, short story or non-fiction prose to enter.

Competition Closes:
Friday, 27 July 2018

Award Presentation ceremony to be held Wednesday, 17 October 2018 at Queensland Multicultural Centre, Kangaroo Point.

Full details and entry forms: www.qieuv.asn.au

Competition supporters:

Before completing this entry form, carefully read the conditions of entry and checklist.

SECTIONS

A Years 11–12

- Poem
 Short Story — Word Count

B Years 9–10

- Poem
 Short Story — Word Count

C Years 7–8

- Poem
 Short Story — Word Count

D Year 5–6

- Poem
 Short Story — Word Count

E Open (Teachers)

- Short Story — Word Count.....

Word Count must also be placed on the entrant's work.

PLEASE PRINT IN CAPITAL LETTERS — Do not write your name on your work

Title of Work: _____

Name: _____
(Given Names) (Surname)

Year Level: _____ Age: _____

School Name: _____

School Address: _____ Home Address: _____

Postcode: _____ Postcode: _____

Teacher ph: _____ Home ph: _____

Teacher email: _____ Home email: _____

PARENT/GUARDIAN CONTACT DETAILS (for student entrants only)

These details will be used by ETAQ to contact Parent/Guardian of award recipients regarding prize payment via EFT

Parent/Guardian name: _____

Ph number: _____ Parent/Guardian Email: _____
(if different to home) (if different to home)

ENTRANT DECLARATION

- I declare that this entry is my original work.
 I have read and acknowledge the conditions of this competition.
 I acknowledge that if I am an entrant who is awarded a prize, my work will be processed through an 'originality checking system' for authenticity.

Entrant's Signature: _____

PARENT/GUARDIAN OR TEACHER DECLARATION

I have read this material and verify that it is, to my knowledge, original. I have checked the details on this entry form and, to my knowledge, they are correct.

Name of Parent/Guardian or Teacher: _____

Signature of Parent/Guardian or Teacher: _____

A completed form should be attached to each entry submitted.

Conditions of Entry

1. All sections are open to students and teachers in all schools in Queensland and independent schools in the Northern Territory.
2. Limit of Entries: For students only one entry in each category. Each school may submit a maximum of ten entries per category. If more than the limit of ten entries per category from each school is received entries will be returned to the school for re-submission. For teachers only one entry each (maximum of five entries per school) in the Open category.
3. Each entry must be the original work of the entrant.
4. Entrants are asked to keep a copy of their work. If the work is prepared on a computer, an electronic copy should be kept to facilitate the publication of winning entries. Entries will not be returned.
5. Organisers retain the right to publish the prize-winning entries. Once judges' decisions are known, winners will be requested to submit an electronic copy of their work by email. Copyright remains with the author.
6. Each entry must be accompanied by an official entry form, original or photocopied. Please note that the entrant's name must not appear on the work itself.
7. Each entry in the Section A non-fiction prose and all short story sections should be accompanied by a word count to appear on both the work itself and the entry form.
8. Each entry must be typed on A4 size paper. Please ensure that each entry is carefully proofread before it is forwarded for judging.

Prizes

SECTIONS	FIRST PRIZE	SECOND PRIZE	THIRD PRIZE
A Years 11–12	$300	$200	$100
B Years 9–10	$150	$100	$75
C Years 7–8	$150	$100	$75
D Years 5–6	$150	$100	$75
E Open (Teachers)	$300	$200	$100

Payment of Prizes will be by EFT. A representative from the English Teachers Association of Queensland (ETAQ) will be in contact with the parent/guardian of the award recipients to obtain EFT details. All details obtained will be handled with strict confidentiality.

Plagiarism

Organisers retain the right to publish the prize winning entries. Copyright remains with the author. Plagiarism is prohibited. Should an entrant be awarded a prize for a work that the organisers (in their absolute discretion) subsequently consider to be plagiarised, the entrant shall refund the prize money to the organisers on demand.

Checklist

- Have you filled out and completed the entry form correctly?
- Have you proofread your work?
- Are you sure your name does not appear on your work?
- Is your entry typed?
- Have you signed the entry form?
- Has your teacher or parent/guardian signed the entry form?
- Have you attached the entry form to your work?
- If you have entered the short story sections, have you done a word count and does this appear on your entry form and entry?
- Have you retained an electronic copy of your work to submit for publication should you be one of the winners?
- Have you provided a parent/guardian contact for prize EFT payment?

Once you have ticked all of the boxes, you are ready to send in your entry.

Competition Details

SECTIONS

A Years 11–12

1. Poem (M. Alexis Macmillan Memorial Prize)
2. Short Story (600–1500 words)
3. Non-Fiction Prose (600–1500 words), Either:
(a) a feature article; or (b) an editorial for a newspaper.

Entrants should indicate the title of their article and the kind of newspaper and audience for which the article is intended. (Sponsored by James Cook University)

B Years 9–10

1. Poem (Lisa Allen Memorial Prize)
2. Short Story (500–1500 words)

C Years 7–8

1. Poem (Paul Sherman Memorial Award)
2. Short Story (500–1200 words)

D Years 5–6

1. Poem
2. Short Story (400–800 words)

E Open (Teachers)

1. Short Story (800–2500 words)

Closing date for entries is Friday, 27 July 2018.

Entries received after this date will not be eligible.

A completed entry form or photocopy must be attached to each entry. Visit the website late October for notification of the winning entries www.qieu.asn.au

Send entries to:

LITERARY COMPETITION
IEUA-QNT
PO BOX 418
FORTITUDE VALLEY QLD 4006

Contact:

Event Organiser — Michaela Brittain
Phone: (07) 3839 7020
Email: mbrittain@qieu.asn.au

Closing Date

Contact Details