John Capaldo ('78)

Congratulations to Rostrevor College, 100 years! Coincidentally, 2023 marks the 70th anniversary of Glynde Mitre10, we're the "new kids on the block".

The business relationship between Rostrevor College and Glynde Hardware has also spanned 70 years, with Albert Capaldo founding the store in 1953. Today, it is one of the oldest hardware stores in Adelaide and operates seven days a week. Interestingly, Albert's descendants, including his sons and grandsons, have all received an education at Rostrevor College, with the first enrolling in 1963. It's a special relationship and one that will continue for many years to come.

Angelo Iannace ('86)

Iannace Refrigerated Transport is a family-owned company with head office in Adelaide SA. Current operations began in 1998 when we perceived a shortage in the specialised area of refrigerated food transport to clients in particular areas around Adelaide, especially the Hills areas to the east of the city. We quickly established a reputation for exceptional service and demand for expansion of our coverage quickly grew to include most of the Adelaide region.

Iannace Transport is an innovative and unique company within this specialised area of the transport industry. We believe we can grow, and help you to grow your business, but only if we deliver. And delivering is our business.
