BOARDING

DUGGAN DIGEST

TERM 3 SEPTEMBER 2017

FROM THE DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF BOARDING

Dear College Community

As always, it has been a big year on the footy field. We are very fortunate to host some talented footballers in the Duggan House with a number of boys selected to represent South Australia. After solid performances in the National under 18s competition, Harrison Petty is also set to take part in the All-Stars game on Grand Final day. We are all keeping our fingers crossed for Harry and Darcy Fogarty in the upcoming draft.

We celebrated the end of the footy season in style with our traditional Footy Feast in the Pavilion. Donning guernseys from their local clubs Australia-wide or favourite AFL squads, our boys were treated to a fancy meal and a fluent guest speaker in Paul Belton. Mr Belton captivated us all with tales from his youth and his football career that held relevance to each and every one of our boys.

The annual ATSI dinner at Donato's Reception Centre provided another fancy feed for our Indigenous students. Fred Campbell, Danzel Green, Tristan Hunter and Nathaniel Bloomfield contributed in various forms throughout the night. They were outstanding on stage performing alongside the live band. The boys' pride in their culture was evident, but none more so than Fred who was a fantastic role model, particularly for the young Indigenous children present. It was humbling to see one of our Indigenous leaders so immersed in the experience.

This term was a little light on the activity front but we had a handful of boys jump around at Latitude at an inter-school boarding event. We encourage more of the boys to take on these opportunities as they arise. Congratulations to Alistair Sheehan and John Woods who filled in at late notice and joined fellow boarders Kuranye Owen and Henry Honner in completing the 24 hour Pedal Prix race at Murray Bridge.

A number of boys got their groove on in the weekly Year 10 Dance lessons at Loreto. Initially the boys were a little out of their comfort zones but soon found their feet under the guidance of the Footsteps instructor. We hosted the Loreto girls in Week 5 for Mass, dinner and a few games in the Purton Hall. Our Middle Years boys were ruthless in their dodgeball match where only a few brave girls took the court. There was a little less testosterone and more structure in the senior game – largely credit to Head Boarder, Hugh Walker and our social captain, Harrison Petty.

We wish to acknowledge the efforts of Hugh and our dependable Deputy, Jordan Nicholas throughout the year. With 2017 drawing to a close for our year 12 students, we also wish the boys the best of luck finalising their last assessments and in their end of year exams. We hope that the boys are prepared as best as possible for the next chapter in their lives.

With strong numbers in our senior years, our class of 2018 will be expected to set the standard for a harmonious house next year. While the annual Year 11 Leadership Camp was cancelled this year, the boys can look forward to having their thinking challenged at an internal retreat next term. We are very pleased to announce that Max McKay has earned the coveted Head Boarder position and we look forward to the enthusiasm that Max will inject into the role. While our Deputy is yet to be announced, Max will be aptly supported by fellow respected peers and House Captains, Jacob Kennerley and Angus Honner. Congratulations to each of the 3 prefects on their well-deserved elections.

Enjoy the break, enjoy the spring weather. Recharge and refresh.

God Bless

David Walker
Deputy Director of Boarding
