BYRON BAY

Byron Bay's Beach Hotel announces the launch of the Green Room, a bar and dining room within the iconic Beach Hotel. In a progressive move to enhance the local Byron Bay community and its hospitality offering, the famed Beach Hotel has made an impactful statement by removing their historically profitable poker-machines in favour of a locally inspired Green Room. Green Room has been redesigned by hospitality architect, Kelvin Ho of Akin Atelier, to create relaxed yet sophisticated interiors featuring minted green stucco-rendered walls, native Australian recycled timbers and exposed red brick walls —echoing the native surrounds and heritage of the landmark hotel.

The name Green Room is derived from the hotel's entirely eco-friendly and sustainable design, practices and overall philosophy. Both Green Room and Beach Hotel proudly divert 90% of the venue's waste from becoming landfill. In keeping with the hotel's strong live music heritage, Green Room also references the countless musicians and live acts the hotel has fostered over its 25 year history, as well as the barrel of a Byron Bay wave and the cascading foliage that surrounds each guest.

Owner, John van Haandel says, "We're proud of Green Room —a smart, inclusive and relaxed food and beverage pace for locals and visitors with a conscious affiliation to sustainable practices. This is a new era for the Beachy!"

Designed to share, the team has curated a clever menu that utilises locally sourced produce, seafood, poultry and meats supporting Byron's local farmers and growers. Green Room's perfectly curated drinks menu comprises of natural and organic wines by Jilly Wines (on tap) produced in nearby Clunes, New South Wales, and a range of cleverly crafted cocktails, which use locally sourced spirits.

Green Room at the Beach Hotel is the perfect place to host group bookings or private events, just metres from Byron's iconic shoreline.

“Byron Bay’s Beach Hotel, synonymous with the laid-back, beachy vibe of the area, has taken the bold step of getting rid of its poker-machine room to make way for a new restaurant and bar.

Named the Green Room, it has water views, a drinks list where everything - from the wine to the mineral water - has been sourced locally, and a killer menu...”
