ENGLISH LANGUAGE COURSES

JACKY LEUNG WAI YIP, HONG KONG

ELICOS

ELICOS student, Jacky Leung Wai Yip, says there were many surprises about studying in Australia.

"The thing I was most surprised about when I arrived in Australia was the fresh air. My first breath outside at the airport, the air outside was so fresh. The suburb of Box Hill is also really nice because there are lots of trees and suburban surrounds. I like that the streets feel spacious and not cramped. I also like the surroundings outside the classroom and the relaxed atmosphere within," said Jacky.

"The teaching style is also very relaxed, so I find myself enjoying the classes. The teachers are easy to relate to and my classmates are nice. The way of teaching is so easy to understand and he makes the classes fun with lots of activities, so I never feel sleepy in class! I don't just learn about Australian culture, but because my classmates are from all over the world we talk about different cultures which is really interesting."

"The other thing that surprised me about living here is the variety of activities that are available. There are lots of beaches and lots of space. It is the perfect place to live and study."

When Jacky finishes his current ELICOS course he is hoping to stay in Australia to continue his further studies.
