ABOUT THE COURSE

This intensive program is designed to provide individuals with the skills and techniques necessary in their transition to a management role.

The adjustment from being managed to 'being the manager' is the biggest challenge in today's demanding business environment. With the diverse mix of generations in the workforce, the ability to bring people together, maintain motivation, address performance and deliver results is a challenge that cannot be underestimated.

Learn how to create, empower and lead a cohesive team to achieve results through delegation, coaching, effective prioritisation and able decision-making.

You'll learn how best to approach each individual in your team – and how to juggle the multiple demands on you as a manager, whilst maintaining the focus on the efforts of both you and your team.

Develop a greater level of personal effectiveness in the performance of your management role through a better understanding of your personal communication style and how to influence others to achieve desired outcomes.

Become more confident in confronting difficult people and situations and learn to resolve problems quickly whilst building sustainable and beneficial relationships with both internal and external stakeholders.

Armed with a portfolio of management techniques, you will return to your workplace well-equipped to build on your strengths as a manager, and to identify areas where you can improve both your efficiency and your working relationships.

WHO WILL BENEFIT

This program has been developed specifically for those managing the transition into their first management role and overseeing work done by others to achieve organisational goals.

It will be of particular value to newly appointed managers, supervisors, team leaders and project managers who wish to strengthen their management skills.

EXPERT COURSE INSTRUCTORS

Andrew Lee

Passionate about people, curious about behaviour, Andrew Lee has extensive experience of over 31 years as a management consultant, trainer, facilitator and coach throughout Australia, New Zealand and South East Asia, with a great deal of expertise in adult learning approaches.

Andrew's familiarity with technical thinking has enabled him to create a niche in assisting technically trained professionals make the move into management and leadership roles - translating complex theory into easily understood examples and stories inspires his audiences to take a fresh look at the problems they may be confronted with.

Andrew has also developed groundbreaking work in developing curiosity. A precursor for problem solving, learning, creativity, engagement and intrinsic motivation, curiosity is rarely employed as much as it should be. Developing a team's Curiosity Quotient provides a springboard to solving most workplace problems. Curious by nature and always looking for more effective ways to engage, explain and educate, Andrew focuses on cultivating curiosity as a catalyst for learning, problem solving and change. In 2010 he delivered a plenary on "Cultivating Curiosity" at the International Conference on Thinking in Kuala Lumpur and in 2013 attended an Adaptive Leadership Program at the Kennedy School of Management, Harvard.

While Andrew offers a range of common one or two day programs a large part of his current work is spread out over longer periods and has the look and feel of intensive coaching.

Andrew has a Certificate IV in training and assessment, is a master practitioner of Neuro Linguistic Programming (NLP), has a Diploma of Traditional Chinese Medicine and is currently completing an MBA.

Sandi Givens

Sandi has a unique ability to connect with, engage and enthuse her entire audience, irrespective of size, demographic or skill level. Exceptional communication and interpersonal skills, and leading-edge educational and learning technologies enable Sandi to inspire people to incorporate new behaviours and attitudes in their daily lives.

With over 26 years of professional experience in training and management, her primary goal is to help people learn, rather than merely tell them what to do. For the past 15 years, Sandi has worked as a consultant and director of her own company, Knowledge-Able Pty Ltd.

Sandi is skilled in the areas of needs analysis, program design and development, customisation for individual clients and post-program coaching to ensure application of new skills and behaviours in the workplace.
