ABOUT THE COURSE

From planning a presentation to delivery, this program will take the form of a workshop that is practical, interactive and immersive in a "safe" environment. It is ideal for those who are presenting to management, direct-reports, peers, clients and suppliers and who wish to improve their capacity to engage and influence through their speaking skills. There will be opportunities for peer and facilitator review, self-evaluation and a practice field for application and integration of the skills and processes.

WHAT OUR CLIENTS SAY

OUR EXPERT COURSE INSTRUCTOR

Isabel Deeble

With over 29 years' experience in research, consulting and training Isabel conducts numerous corporate programs and one on one coaching in leadership and communication for private and corporate clients.

University trained and with an extensive background in performing arts, Isabel has credentials, experience and accreditation in presentation skills, behavioural styles, interpersonal communication and visual credibility.

Isabel has also been trained in the USA in internationally recognised principles of influence and persuasion. Isabel applies these principles to her content and processes as they are critical to effective leadership negotiation. Isabel also incorporates learnings and insights of Neuro Linguistic Programming (NLP) into her training and consulting. She is an accomplished public speaker and is vice-president of the National Speakers Association of Australia (NSW).

She is a communication specialist who is an entertaining and compelling presenter, effectively engaging her audiences and leaving them enthused to take personal action to enhance their leadership, persuasion and negotiation skills.

Isabel has been a consultant to The Dept of Foreign Affairs and Trade training SE Asian trade commissioners and senior members of the Ministry of Education in China. Her current clients range in size from one-person businesses to large merchant banks. Current clients include Ernst and Young, Dept of State and Regional Development, Swiss RE, Macquarie Bank, WorkCover Authority, Global Medical Solutions Australia and LJ Hooker.

Course attendees benefit directly from the 'take-away' useful skills they learn. Isabel ensures that her workshops are practical, interactive and produce change-oriented outcomes. She is passionate about helping her client's project confidence, credibility, competence and personal power to achieve success in leadership.
