Fortunately the learnings from the 2007 CSR Summit are not just limited to the delegates. Thanks to the wonders of technology and the generosity of our speakers and delegates, we have recorded the 2007 CSR Summit and the following podcasts are available.

The sessions are as follows:

Session 1
Sustainability – The next level. Frank Dixon.

Session 2
Why non financial measurement, reporting and management are essential to predicting and managing corporate health. John Meacock.

Session 3
Whose responsibility is the global epidemic of childhood obesity and diabetes? Is it the consumer or the marketer? Amidst growing health issues – how do the world’s biggest brands address growing societal demands to be more responsible? Sally Loane and Kristene Mullen.

Session 4
How aligning culture and behaviour with business strategy builds sustainable companies and feeds the bottom line. Jeremy Nichols.

Session 5
Grow me the money. A look at how Universities and the private sector are using CSR to prosper and grow. Dr Suzanne Benn and Prof Dean Forbes.

Session 7
How to gain management buy-in that there is a better way to run a business by moving from a shareholder single bottom line approach to an all encompassing stakeholder triple bottom line approach and on the flip side, why (if at all) management need to buy-in. Andrew Beatty, Dani Fraillon and John Reid.

Session 8
CSR and social business: the gentle revolution and lessons from the UK. Cheryl Kernot.

Session 9
CSR/Sustainability Communications: Who cares; what matters; what doesn’t? Chris Deri.

Session 10
Sleeping with the Enemy? Jonathan Wootliff.

Session 11
How do we show leadership and survive in a carbon restricted world? Carol Battle, Damien Wigley and Tim Castree.

Session 12
Action and engagement in the community. Community specialists, share their views and answer your questions on community engagement, corporate-cause partnerships with a focus on brand driven partnerships and corporate citizenship. Wayne Burns, Hailey Cavill, Jerry Marston and Bill Hauritz.

Session 13
Although it’s early days for CR in Australia, we explore what is driving change in the marketplace, and where there are gaps in an endeavour to understand what Australia needs if we are to catch up to other business centres of the world, reduce risk and sustain ourselves into the future. Tim Castree, John Meacock, Amanda Little & Roslyn Doyle.

Session 14
Thoughts for Australia’s way forward.
Tim Castree, John Meacock, Cheryl Kernot, Amanda Little and others.
