Minter Ellison Lawyers, WASEA and MOSS invite you to attend a breakfast business briefing on:

What happened at the United Nations Climate Change Conference in Bali and how it will affect you and your organisation.

All speakers attended the UNFCCC Conference in Bali in December and will address issues around carbon taxes, trading systems, mitigation, investment opportunities, environmental partnerships, the Carbon Disclosure Project, showcase leading global initiatives and best practice and much much more...

Tuesday 19th February 7.30am – 9.30am
Minter Ellison Lawyers Boardroom, Level 49, Central Park, 152-158 St Georges Tce, Perth.

Welcome and opening comments by Glen McLeod, Partner Minter Ellison; MC Dr Ray Wills, CEO of the WA Sustainable Energy Association. Speakers include:

Matt Porter, Lawyer Minter Ellison.
Matt is a qualified environmental scientist who has worked in a variety of legal fields including property, planning, mining, environmental, water and litigation. Matt’s personal interest in climate change has lead him to give over 60 seminar talks on the subject to a variety of organisations. He is also a director of one of Australia’s largest carbon-offset providers, Carbon Neutral.

Paul Bennett, MNG ing Sustainability AMB Holdings.
Paul has a wide career in different disciplines, ranging from active environmentalist to organic farmer. He believes in true sustainable development and feels that this can be embraced by both corporate and individuals alike. He is actively involved informing communities how to raise awareness and create true sustainability. This has involved raising support in Tasmania’s rainforest region and through his Al Gore Ambassador role. Currently Paul has expanded his role in the family company AMB Holdings, aiding the company and the outer community to act responsibly so their contributions have a positive effect on our planet. Paul’s passion was fuelled by the ethics instilled in him by his grandfather Peter Wright.

Anne-Maree Huxley, CEO Models of Success & Sustainability.
Anne-Maree is the Founder and CEO of Models of Success & Sustainability (MOSS) Australia’s newly established industry body for Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR). MOSS supports Australian business through education, training, networking and advice to drive sustainability and competitive business success. She is also the co-founder of The One at a Time Foundation and a Director of the Live n Learn Foundation.

Jonathan Wootliff, International Sustainability Advisor and Environmental broker.
Jonathan is a veteran of UN Climate Conferences and a former journalist turned corporate responsibility consultant, specializing in helping multinational corporations build productive relationships with NGOs, advocacy and activist groups through effective engagement. Based in Europe, he travels extensively within the continent, as well as to the United States and Australasia, where he assists companies in building sustainable development strategies. Jonathan has undertaken client assignments for a wide range of companies including Altria, British Petroleum, Coca-Cola, Colgate-Palmolive, Merrill Lynch, Procter and Gamble, the Society for Worldwide Interbank Financial Telecommunication, Unocal, the Whirlpool Corporation and the Indonesian paper and pulp producer, APRIL. He has extensive knowledge in the energy, forestry, agriculture, food, and extractive industries sectors and provided a daily column on the UNFCCC for the Jakarta Post during the Bali conference.
