Join our 5 day SUSTAINABILITY LEADERSHIP PROGRAM on World Heritage Listed Fraser Island Sept 3 - 7, 2018 staying at the award winning eco-friendly Kingfisher Bay Resort.

Join MOSS Founder and Top 100 Global SustainAbility Leader Anne-Maree McInerney, as she leads a 5 day Sustainability Leadership Program on Fraser Island exploring how to live and work sustainably from the inside out.

So many people today who work in or leader sustainability efforts and or who own their own businesses offering green products and or services are burning themselves out. Many have become bored, stale and or disillusioned. Others are just starting their sustainability journey - so come discover the tools and a framework that will support you and your organisation to THRIVE!

As part of a specially designed five day LEADERSHIP PROGRAM, you will:

✅ See firsthand how a business can live in harmony with nature and the environment.
✅ Visit a poo farm and discover the secrets to achieve zero waste.
✅ Discover the opportunities (and challenges) of new economic models such as the Blue and Circular Economy.
✅ Learn how to problem solve and unleash creativity.
✅ Discover how to activate more agility and adaptive thinking so businesses can flourish and cut through age old barriers.
✅ Learn how to map forward flows and do what nature does best - adapt.
✅ The what, the why and the how to engage stakeholders to achieve your goals.
✅ Learn a simple 4 step process to articulate a new narrative.
✅ Renew and reinvigorate your relationship with self and others.
✅ Be inspired by the latest global trends, best practice case studies and innovation.
✅ Refocus and rejuvenate your goals, strategy, and enthusiasm for your personal and professional sustainability journey.
✅ Have a rare chance to work on your business not in your business to discover hidden treasures and resources.
Discover the 9 Global Principles of how to effectively communicate sustainability.

Learn how to earn and maintain your social licence to operate in an activist led, ever changing disruptive marketplace.

Discover how mindfulness and or connecting with nature can enhance your intuition and productivity.

Swim with humpback whales and discover how communing with nature can shape your purpose and that of your business, and how you live your life.

And much much more!

You will learn from global leaders, your peers and nature. Each day there is a mix of theory and practice. Your class room will be the great outdoors and one of most loved eco businesses in Australia - Kingfisher Bay Resort.

Who should attend: This workshop is ideal for anyone interested in improving their economic, social and environmental performance - especially business owners and managers, sustainability managers and business advisors.

When and Where: Monday 3rd September - Friday Sept 7th October, 2018 @ Kingfisher Bay Resort and Hotel, Fraser Island, Queensland.

Early Bird Price: $4,050 twin share $4,450 single supplement - saving $400. 50% deposit upon booking with the balance fully paid by Friday June 21.

Regular Price: $4,450 twin share $4,850 single supplement. 50% deposit upon booking with the balance paid in full by Friday July 20.

Price includes: All meals (including a 5 course Australian Bush Foods degustation experience and accompanying beer/wine), 4 nights accommodation, ferry transfers to and from Hervey Bay, whale watching and swim, 5 day leadership program, copy of "The Blue Economy", workbook, online resource and checklists.

Benefits: Feel lighter, more alive, grounded and fulfilled. Expect to dramatically increase revenues and get greater uptake of your programs. Best of all you get to go back to work with less stress more motivation and a tool kit to guide your journey.

This is a rare opportunity to immerse yourself in best practice, swim with humpback whales, dance with dingoes and dine under the stars in what will truly be one of the best sustainability leadership, strategy and communications workshops ever hosted in Australia.

To maximise learning outcomes, this leadership program is for 12 only participants – so book or reserve your spot today to avoid disappointment.

We look forward to you joining us.