

What clients, members and workshop participants say about Anne-Maree Huxley as a speaker, facilitator, trainer and as a Blue Economy expert

"Anne-Maree is a passionate and evocative presenter. Her deep belief in sustainability resonates through her powerful and meaningful stories of change and transformation. She creatively shows us that sustainability is not just an aspiration – it is a practical reality that is sweeping our businesses, communities and governance systems. I would strongly recommend her as a highly capable facilitator and presenter who can make sustainability real."

Associate Professor Andrew Wilford, Mirvac School of Sustainable Development, Bond University

"I have known Anne-Maree for many years and can attest to her deep knowledge of how concepts of sustainability can be put into practice for the benefit of public and private enterprises. Anne-Maree is a passionate, articulate and compelling speaker."

Andrew Beatty, Partner, Baker and McKenzie

"Anne-Maree is an engaged and inspiring person who brings energy to her surroundings. Her marketing and communication skills combined with her Blue Economy expertise will bring valuable support to any organization that wants to develop a truly sustainable and competitive business."

Tobias Källqvist, Environmental Scientist and Blue Economy Expert, SWECO - Stockholm, Sweden

"Whether you are pressured to create value through innovation, or seek to revitalize the economy in your region in a truly sustainable manner, Anne-Maree is definitely the person to go-to."

Numa ROCH, Managing Director ARNO COACHING, Paris, France

"In order to think outside of the box, you need to know about the Blue Economy. I could not think of a better person in the Asia Pacific region than Anne-Maree Huxley to conduct the trainings on the Blue Economy. Her expertise and her amazing communication skills make her a perfect trainer."

Oscan Portillo, Director, Montanai Solutions, Barcelona, Spain

"It's rare to meet someone who speaks with such flow and ease about complex matters. Anne-Maree has great mindfulness and connects easily with everyone. I believe she can have a big impact on the world especially in terms of sustainable development and the Blue Economy."

Adam El Jaouhari, Engineer, Ecole Centrale - Paris

"Anne-Maree's ability to pay attention to details while she keeps the Big Picture in her view is making her one of the best facilitators I have ever met. She is also able to explain things in common terms if needed making her a great presenter to all audiences."

Everett, Washington - USA

"A shining star on an international scale, Anne-Maree captivates audiences with her profound wisdom, intoxicating energy and irrefutable communication expertise. This collection of skills is precisely the package necessary to carry the game-changing message of "Blue Economy". The business models and innovation used and taught by the Blue Economy is raising the bar across the world for meeting the needs of the people with sustainable methods. The faster we spread the knowledge, the faster our world achieves a state of harmony! Book Anne-Maree today to assist you to achieve your sustainability goals."

Savannah Gates, Mechanical Engineer, Pantex, Amarillo, Texas

"Anne-Maree is an excellent facilitator (I have attended many of her workshops over the years) and the Blue Economy is exactly what I needed to learn as a Sustainability Manager with a desire to make real changes to 'Business as Usual' thinking. It has inspired me to work with more like minded organisations to solve collective industry problems."

Pam Merlo, National Sustainability Manager, Ricoh Australia

"I have seen firsthand Anne-Maree's ability to engage an audience and how her influence can ignite passion for sustainability in others - and how with her help real change is happening.

I know there are lots of people all doing their little bit to bring about change and embed sustainability principles, be they in NGOs companies, universities, consultancies or even government, but Anne-Maree has taken on the great challenge of bringing all these people together through MOSS, to create a real industry body and to continue to be a thought leader and change agent.

Very few people can work across sectors with the authority Anne-Maree has. If you are looking for a consultant, speaker or strategist who just doesn't leave you thinking but also wanting to act, then I can recommend Anne-Maree."

Bill Petch CEO, Leukemia Foundation of Queensland

"Anne-Maree impresses with her determination to front up to any audience, to tackle a complex and challenging subject head-on. She does her homework and thrives on the prospect of taking a serious and globally significant issue to all kinds of audiences and making her presentations informative, thought provoking and colorful! Anne-Maree definitely gets people talking, and thinking."

Leigh Catley, Communications Manager Horticulture New Zealand

"Anne-Maree is a highly effective speaker in delivering a message. She delivers with passion and facts. Anne-Maree is also extremely organized in that she researches her audience and targets the message to the audience."

Hon. Cheryl Edwardes, LL.M., B.Juris., BA, Government Relations and Approvals
Hancock Prospecting, Perth -West Aust

"Anne-Maree will challenge audiences on their perspectives on climate change and the need for action. She brings a truly global perspective to the issues of climate change, corporate social responsibility and sustainability. Her presentation style is challenging and engaging, and will present a compelling argument for urgent action."

Dan Ormond, Principal, Ideas Shop, New Zealand

"Anne-Maree is a dynamic woman with an engaging presentation style, an ability to step through a logical presentation of facts and deductions with clarity, confidence in knowledge of the material and flexibility in technique to move with an audience. Along with her natural enthusiasm and radiant presence, Anne-Maree, is an absolute pleasure to work with."

Trevor Keightley Executive Producer Under The Sun Media, NSW

"Anne-Maree Huxley is a consummate speaker and organiser. She addresses audiences with that confidence that people have when they know what they're talking about. I've seen her in action several times and I've never seen her read from notes or put a word out of place. If it's about sustainability, you couldn't do better."

Bill Hauritz Festival Director Woodford Folk Festival , QLD

"Anne-Maree is one of the few external consultants in Australia that we trust to present our research in open forums. She is a knowledgeable and engaging speaker who can cut through with clear messages that are relevant to business audiences."

Nick Bez Research Director, Mobium Group, VIC

"Anne-Maree Huxley's passion, wealth of knowledge and vast experience in the field of sustainability are what makes her a compelling speaker. She is an exceptional facilitator, as well as a presenter, delivering Sustainability workshops that educate organisations and communities to better understand the complexities of sustainability."

Anna Harper Executive Coach & Change Agent, Cultural ShapeShifters, NSW

“The workshop is inspiring and empowering in the best possible way. It helped me focus all of my thinking, experience and plans for our environmental initiatives into a manageable yet brilliantly challenging list of what to do next, what we are missing and how we can do what we do better. Thankyou! 10/10”

Stephanie Fett, Environment Program Manager, News Corporation

“Best workshop I have ever attended. Relevant and interesting content. I never felt bored! Anne-Maree was an engaging facilitator who shared a lot of personal antidotes and was flexible in moving the subject matter to align with the industries represented in the room. 10/10”

Marianne Jaques, Community and Sustainability Specialist, IAG

“We are already well along with road on our sustainability journey – this gives us the tools to communicate that journey honestly and passionately. Very relevant content, great facilitation, inspiring and positive.”

“Great case studies, clear and simple principles, well structured with lots of take home links and references. 10/10”

Adrienne Tasker, Bio Pak

“Re-energising! Reminding me of the positive angles to sell sustainability! I loved the practical tools and range of case studies.”

Nicki Ledger, Sustainability Officer, City of Melville

“Brilliant! More people need to hear this. I highly recommend it.”

Hailey Cavill, Director, Cavill + Co

“It was fantastic exposure to reports, videos, inspiring content and examples that drilled down into specific frameworks for communicating – plus it provides a terrific source of information and tools to revisit away from the MasterClass. Anne-Maree’s knowledge is second to none. It’s great to know there is a bank of knowledge and an expert like Anne-Maree available to help me to distill the information. Thank you!”

Rachel Maddocks, Sustainability Manager Australia & New Zealand, Fujitsu Australia

“I enjoyed the very targeted nature of the workshop. Thank you for providing real world examples. It’s great information for government and policy advisors. It was a great ‘re-set’ for my way of thinking/approach to climate change and sustainability. Gives me greater hope that the message can reach the coalition and unconvinced public. “

Karissa Domondon, Policy Advisor, Office of Hon Alannah MacTiernan MHR, WA

“It was informative, practical and very professional. This workshop provided tools and understanding to enable breakthrough in our efforts to ensure sustainability is better understood and embedded in our organisation.”

Chris Jones, Executive Director, Campus Services Division, Deakin University

“This workshop provided a great overview of key success factors in communicating in an industry/topics that can be difficult to achieve cut-through. Excellent. Thanks Anne-Maree.”

Kirsten Rose, CEO, Sustainable Energy Association of Australia

“Thank you. This was very insightful and gave good creative ideas on how to change the way I articulate goals and ideas on why sustainability is of benefit to the business. “

Paul Timmins, Sustainability Manager, Hanson
