

Epilepsy

Under the new guidelines, Epilepsy management plans and/or Emergency Medication Management plans will now be covered by the NDIS.

This plan will need to be developed by a specialized epilepsy nurse, who will implement the plan based on their Neurologists recommendations.

The NDIS has also confirmed that they will fund seizure equipment through the participants AT budget under "Capital Supports." An AT form will have to be completed for the provision of this equipment.