

MEDIA RELEASE

NEWTON REAL ESTATE AND SHIRE FIRST NATIONAL ANNOUNCE TRANSFORMATIONAL COMBINATION

Last month Newton Real Estate celebrated their 18th birthday and today announced the merger of two professional real estate business in the Caringbah.

Newton Real Estate and Shire First National Caringbah will join forces from the 1st July 2019 to become one of the Shire's market leaders in Real Estate.

Agency Principal, David Newton congratulated the team on their outstanding efforts and results in 2018.

"We are excited to combine with such a professional team. There will be very little change relative to our client sales and property management in both offices, you will really just notice that we are a larger team working under the one brand Newton Real Estate with the business operating from the larger existing premises at 44 President Ave, Caringbah."

David Newton continued: "Luke Mandile's team have a strong reputation in real estate that will enhance the services we provide at Newton Real Estate, which will allow our agency to be an even greater competitor in the Sutherland Shire for years to come. With this merger, we look forward to adding greater value to our clients by way of access to a larger team of dedicated professionals, with a wealth of experience and knowledge when it comes to real estate that is unmatched by none." stated David Newton, Agency Principal of Newton Real Estate.

The Newton team will remain unchanged however there will be significant benefits such as:

- Increased resources - more staff and two licensees-in-charge David Newton and Luke Mandile
- Increased expertise (breadth and depth of staff knowledge)
- Additional sales and customer service resources - overall more bandwidth to provide better customer experience
- Expanded real estate systems
- Some exciting new offerings.

For more information, visit Newton Real Estate at <https://www.newtonrealestate.com.au/merger>

-ENDS-

For more information, or to request an interview or photo, please contact Tearne Madden, Newton Real Estate Marketing Coordinator on: tearne@newtonrealestate.com.au