LUCAS

As Melbourne's premier vertical living specialists, we've worked tirelessly to maintain our leadership in the sale and management of apartments across Melbourne. When you deal with Lucas Real Estate you'll realise the priceless advantage that experience brings.

In fact, we list, manage and sell more apartments in Melbourne's Inner City than anyone else in the business. All because we make it a priority to surround ourselves with everything that is great – great people, great marketing, great technology, great ideas and above all great clients. Our committed team shares a dedication to a set of guiding principles and ethics where our clients and client service rank above all else. We forever strive to maximise our results by never forgetting that the difference is in the details and how we see them.

CONNECTING MELBOURNE TO THE LARGEST SELECTION OF APARTMENTS OUR WAY

1

Our insight

When it comes to vertical living, nobody understands local real estate like we do. We know the properties, the people and the community like no other. Our unique approach to specialising in Melbourne's vertical living translates to better results and shorter days on market.

2

Our open homes

Our negotiations begin before the first open home, where we use our database to identify the most interested parties and explore their expectations and budget. We never let a sales opportunity pass us by, making sure we have consistent follow-up and feedback.

3

Our network

Our database of genuine registered buyers is one of the largest and in an environment increasingly dominated by digital methods, we use it to your best advantage. It allows us to communicate with potential buyers in a timely, relevant, targeted way and understand exactly what they're looking for.

4

Our marketing

Listing with us guarantees that your property is showcased to perfection. Our marketing is designed to talk to buyers and tenants. Our clever marketing strategies are intelligent, effective and mindful of your bottom line, reaching the broadest possible number of people.

5

Our people

Real estate is all about relationships. It's about building trust with your vendors and buyers, providing peace of mind and being empathetic to our client's needs. Despite the competitive environment and need for tough negotiation, our team at Lucas hasn't forgotten the importance of being likeable, personable and affable.

6

Our style

We know how crucial it is to be approachable and understanding of clients' individual situations and personal circumstances. When we forge relationships with our clients we're in it for the long haul, so personality counts.
